ABSTRACT

Based on responses received from a telephone survey in the spring of 1986, the directory of 97 organizations and activities related to American Indian education are arranged alphabetically by state within national, regional, state, and university categories. Each entry includes the name of the organization, address, contact person, telephone number, and a brief description of the activity's function followed by the year it was established, conferences it sponsors, and newsletters or other periodic publications it produces. Listed under the state category are names and addresses of State Departments of Education staff responsible for American Indian education. A last category provides directory information for six selected periodicals pertaining to American Indian culture, education, and welfare. (LFL)
